Special Spring Packages

Spark Opening of Golf Season at Grand Geneva

APRIL 13, 2009—LAKE GENEVA, WI—Spring has sprung in southeastern Wisconsin and Grand Geneva is celebrating by offering three special golf packages to ensure a great start to your golf season. One of just three AAA Four Diamond properties in the state and the only one to offer 36 championship holes on the acclaimed Brute and Highlands courses, Grand Geneva recently announced its Ladies' Golf, Fun FORE the Family, and Grand Golf packages.

“No matter what your skill level, we’ve come up with a perfect package for everyone,” said Director of Golf Dave Hallenbeck. “Both our courses are perfectly manicured and provide our guests with an ultra-relaxed and renewed feeling. The Brute and The Highlands are as beautiful as they are challenging.”

Completing a sizeable series of major upgrades to its guest rooms by July 1, Grand Geneva offers a quick getaway, being located just an hour from Chicago’s north suburbs and 45 minutes from Milwaukee. This legendary resort has it all – from the aforementioned The Brute and The Highlands, to the ultra relaxing WELL Spa + Salon, a selection of fine dining options, horseback riding and miles and miles of hiking, biking and running trails. There’s also the 50,000 sq. ft. indoor/outdoor Moose Mountain Falls Waterpark.

But it’s the golf that defines this one-of-a-kind destination. The Brute and The Highlands at Grand Geneva have earned acclaim as a Silver Medalist Resort by Golf Magazine and the Robert Bruce Harris designed Brute and Jack Nicklaus/Pete Dye-designed Highlands have both earned their way into the Zagat Survey of America’s Top Golf Courses.
